Clark: You're pretty good too, I was noticing you were talking in full sentences last night
Clark: Knefel's sister, Molly, has good video presence Clark: but everytime I see TV I am put off by the interchangeable blonde ladies, so what he needs are faces that look more like America, lots of hispanics, especially me: yeah, I saw that video they did, it was funny and I want to marry his sister me: yeah, we won't have any trouble getting good people for TV me: Allison Kilkenny and Jamie Kilstein do a fantastic radio show Clark: sam adam appears to have an abundance of smart, articulate people, TFT seemed more like a review of the arts than a newspaper, but hes got some really good writers, and sometimes that carries over to public presentation me: Sam Apple?
Clark: yes, faster times
Clark: damn, i must be thirsty, that time of day me: beer thirty?
Clark: yeah
